JJJ. Employee Housing. Employee housing may occur in residential zones as specified in Table 17.13.030 pursuant to the following:

1. Purpose. The purpose of this section is to bring the Orange Municipal Code into compliance with the California Employee Housing Act (Health and Safety Code Sections 17000–17062.5) by clarifying the regulation of employee and farmworker housing.
2. Employee Housing for Six or Fewer Persons. In accordance with Health and Safety Code Section 17021.5, employee housing providing accommodations for six or fewer employees shall be considered a residential use of property. Such housing shall be permitted in all zones that allow residential uses, subject to the same standards and restrictions applicable to other residential dwellings of the same type in the same zone.

In accordance with Health and Safety Code Section 17021.6, employee housing consisting of no more than 12 units or 36 beds and exclusively for agricultural employees shall be considered an agricultural use. Such housing shall be permitted in all zones that allow agricultural uses and shall not be subject to any zoning requirements that are more restrictive than those applicable to other agricultural uses in the same zone.
4. Conditional Use and Development Standards. Any employee housing that exceeds the thresholds described in subsections 2. and 3. shall be subject to the applicable zoning, permitting, and conditional use requirements of the underlying zone, consistent with all local and state housing laws.

SECTION VI:

This ordinance is exempt from the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15061(b)(3) (Common Sense Exemption), because it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the ordinance may have a significant effect on the environment. The proposed amendments do not significantly increase the potential (in manner or degree) for future development, beyond what is currently permitted by the City of Orange Zoning Code. Therefore, the project would not result in a direct or reasonably foreseeable indirect physical change in the environment.

SECTION VII:

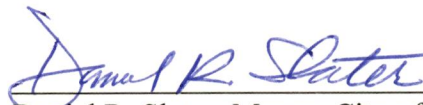

If any section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance, and each section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one (or more) section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase had been declared invalid or unconstitutional.
