as follows:

Section I. State of Authority.

This local law is authorized by the New York State Constitution, the provisions of the New York Municipal Home Rule Law, the relevant provisions of the Town Law of the State of New York, the laws of the Town of Yorktown and the general police power vested with the Town of Yorktown to promote the health, safety and welfare of all residents and property owners in the Town.

Section II. Chapter 300-196(B) of the Code of the Town of Yorktown is hereby replaced in its entirety with the following language:

B. The Building Inspector, after soliciting and considering input from the planning, parks, highway, water and engineering departments, which input must be received within three business days of solicitation, may issue a temporary certificate of occupancy ("TCO") for a part or all of a structure, upon a finding of good cause and that there are no health or safety concerns with the structure, the property or the relevant outstanding project improvements, for a period of three months, provided that all requirements for the development of said lot or site can be completed within said period and that a sufficient bond is on account with the Town for the outstanding project improvements to be completed. If an application for extension of the TCO is made prior to the expiration of the initial three-month period, the Building Inspector may extend the TCO for an additional three-month period, but no more than three such extensions may be granted by the Building Inspector, for a nine-month total extension period. The Building Inspector shall notify the Town supervisor in writing when a TCO has been issued and each time it is extended. The Town Board may authorize the Building Inspector via resolution to extend a TCO beyond twelve months in its discretion. Fees for initial TCO and extensions shall be set forth in the Town's Master Fee Schedule. (continued on pg. 2A)
